Dear Sir:

Since writing you the other day, I have made some changes in my plans, and am writing you about them.

I have decided to give the men in camp $20.00 a week in addition to paying there expenses. I realize they are all working now, and it might work a hardship on them to quit there jobs for a month in camp.

This money will be paid in addition to the salaries for the season.

We are planning to go to camp about the first of April. Please let me hear from you if you will be able to go then. We are training in Richmond and will stay at Virginia Union University.

Very Truly Yours
